The image displays a series of 15 sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of three lines. The top line of each set is a thin line, the middle line is a thicker line, and the bottom line is a thin line. A small downward-pointing arrow is positioned to the left of the middle line in each set. The sets are arranged vertically down the page, providing a template for handwriting practice.

This image shows a vertical column of 18 horizontal lines, each starting with a small 'v' symbol on the left side. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. The 'v' symbols are positioned at the beginning of each line, serving as a guide for letter height and placement. The lines are intended for writing practice, specifically for uppercase and lowercase letters as indicated by the header.

The image displays a vertical column of 20 horizontal lines, designed for handwriting practice. Each line is preceded by a small, black, downward-pointing 'v' shape on the left margin. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page, providing a guide for letter height and placement.
